

Broadband over power line will cause unacceptable levels of interference to the high frequency radio spectrum. Commercial, government (military) and amateur communications will all be adversely affected. I hold an extra class amateur radio license and have been licensed for forty years. BPL should not be permitted.

David K. Brower, W4DKB